1. YANKEEN EN MEXICO.

Mexico seems to be attracting the attention of enterprising "Yankeen" just now, as much or more than any other country. It is said or more than any other country. It is said or more than any other country. It is said of the said that Mexico attords time type remetities for making miney in various ways. The mines are tich in gold and silver, but they are worked rich in gold and silver, but they are wirked precisely as they were scientury ago. As adprecisely as they were scientury ago. As advected the silver of the scientury ago. As advected to the scienture of a constitution of the scienture of the sc enough for their forefathers a good mongh for the Maxigan of the present day. It is the same with their farming, their sugar-making and what manufactures they have. Everything is conducted in primitive styles and by primito conducted in primitive styles and by primi-tive methods, regardless of improvements in machinery and arts. As al froncediment there are east resources which side almost chirely undeveloped, and which swait energy and enunderstoped, and which system carries and the terprise such as the natives lave not, but such as are possessed by our camp people to the full-est extent. With the completion of railways and the opening up of the interior, the tendency thither will be even greater than ow; and the time is probaby not listent when the chief capitalists of Mex co will be citizens of the United States.

An interesting financial exhibit is made in a Into issue of the Salt Lage Trebune. It consists of the amounts paid for taxes by some of the leaders of the Marmon church. Apostle-Willard Woodruff, for instance. pays 1173-18, John Taylor $204-48, and George Q Cannon $371 30. These amounts book rather small for men known to be almost millionaries. A Centile firm, the Walker Brothers, pay more than twice as much as twenty of the heads of the Mormon church. But this is not be only queer thing.
